April Is Youth Month

The month of April is Credit Union Youth Month at MassMutual Federal Credit Union, and we are so excited for this year's Jurassic theme!

Saving for the future is a super important lesson for children to learn, which is why MMFCU is hosting a fun and interactive contest to encourage putting aside money for later! This contest is available to new and current GenerationNow accounts.

Here's how to get started:

1. Open a GenerationNow account for your child.
2. Once the account has been opened, MMFCU will send your child a Dinosaur Bank Painting Kit. If your child already has a GenerationNow account, please request a kit by emailing cumarketing@massmutualfcu.org.
3. Have your child paint the dinosaur bank and email a photo of the finished product to cumarketing@massmutualfcu.org.
4. Photos of each painted dinosaur will be posted on our Facebook page. The two photos with the most likes (one photo for a new GenerationNow account, one for an existing GenerationNow account) will get $100 deposited into their account.

*All new GenerationNow accounts opened April 1–30 will receive a free Dinosaur Bank Painting Kit. The voting period for submissions on Facebook runs April 1–May 15.

During the month of April, support kids who need books the most! MMFCU and the public school systems believe that providing a child access to books gives them the best opportunity to become a successful reader for life.

BOOK DRIVE

There are a few ways you can contribute to the MMFCU virtual Book Drive:

1. We've created a school supply wish list on Amazon.com. Simply add items to your cart and check out. The items will be shipped to MMFCU and safely distributed to the Enfield and Springfield communities.
2. You can make donations online at the MMFCU website, and we will provide the funds to the local communities to help them purchase needed books.
3. We will have a bin located at our Express Teller location where you can drop off new or gently used books.

The drive runs through April 30.

We thank you in advance for your help – and the kids thank you, too! If you have any questions about the MMFCU Book Drive, please email cumarketing@massmutualfcu.org.
